No. 37

SIR,

Adverting to Government Notification, No.G.1823/G.M.39 dated 13th March 1912, appointing Mr. D'Souza to act as Senior Assistant Commissioner, for certain periods, I have the honor to state that, prior to this Notification, Mr. D'Souza was in receipt of the pay of a 1st class Assistant Commissioner, viz., Rs.150/-, together with the usual Secretariat allowance of Rs.70/- which in his case was treated as a personal allowance under Government Order No.G.6202/G.M.300-05-2 dated 16th June 1906. And accordingly to the rule regarding the treatment of personal allowances, on the officer in receipt of it getting an increase to his salary, the personal allowance of Mr. D'Souza should cease on his present acting promotion. But whether he is or is not to get the Secretariat Local allowance also on his promotion, is not very clear from the Government Orders on the subject. However, as the Government Order directing the treatment of the Secretariat allowance as a personal one in his case was issued with the object of rectifying an inequality complained of and as it does not appear to be the intention of Government that that order should be interpreted in a manner favourable to him on his getting subsequent promotions, this office has taken the view that on his recent acting promotion to the grade of Senior Assistant
